Phan Theory and beyond
Corneliu Hoffman (Birmingham)

The talk considers presentations of groups of Lie type (and Kac–Moody groups) as amalgams of some of their subgroups. The Curtis–Tits–Phan approach uses the actions of these groups on so called “flip-flop” geometries which are some sub-geometries of a twin building. The purpose of this talk is to present some recent extensions of the theory.